

Diversity Management in action

This hands-on workshop is aiming to show how to implement and mainstream diversity and equality strategies and policies and make them part of the day-to-day work. Working along a project management cycle (inception, delivery, evaluation and monitoring) tools and checklists are presented and tested.

This workshop is for HR professionals, Diversity/ Equality experts, trainers and all people in organisations and companies that are responsible for diversity and equality.

You can bring along your examples, projects, products, activities as basis for the practical parts of the workshop.

Presentations and checklists will be made available. Workshop will be held in German.

Date

- 1 September 2015 | 9.00 – 17.00 h
- British Council Deutschland
Alexanderplatz 1
10178 Berlin

Investment

- 150,00 EUR (included are: drinks, light lunch, workshop materials and Certificate)
- Payment details will be given after registration

Your workshop fascilitator

- Kathrin Tietze is Project Manager at the British Council. Amongst other things she is working on implementing British Council diversity and equality strategies in Germany and across Europe.
- She develops training offers and speaks regularly at national and international conferences.

Registration and Enquiries

- Registration via <http://goo.gl/forms/mK8neunGFj> until 24 August 2015 (places are limited).
- Eva Rhiemeier, Project-coordinator
Email: eva.rhiemeier@britishcouncil.de, Telephone: 030-311099-24

Programme

9.00 h

- Welcome and Introduction
- Importance of a strategic approach to Diversity Management
 - Definitions
 - Why Diversity Management?
- Project Management Cycle 1 – Planning
 - Equality Screening and Impact Assessment
 - Check list to implement in projects and product development

13.00 h

- Lunch

14.00 h

- Project Management Cycle 2 – Delivery
 - Check list for event management
- Project management Cycle 3 – Monitoring and Evaluation
 - Equality Monitoring
 - Diversity Assessment Framework
- Summary

17.00 Uhr

- End